

Thank you from the Editors

The Victorian Naturalist could not be published, and would not be successful without the enormous amount of time and effort given voluntarily by a large number of people who work behind the scenes.

As always we particularly thank our authors, who provide us with excellent material for publication.

One of the most important editorial tasks is to have papers refereed. The Editors would like to say thank you, therefore, to the following people who refereed manuscripts that were published during 2008:

Graeme Ambrose
Andrew Bennett
David Cheal
Rohan Clarke
Fabian Douglas
Ian Endersby
Maria Gibson
Donna Lobartolo

Peter Menkhorst
Tim New
Dale Nimmo
Gary Presland
Megan Short
Chris Tyshing
Rob Wallis

The Victorian Naturalist publishes articles for a wide and varied audience. We have a team of dedicated proofreaders who help with the readability and expression of our articles. Our thanks in this regard go to:

Andrea Ballinger
Arthur Carew
Leon Costermans
Arnis Dziedins
Ian Endersby
Linden Gillbank
Maria Gibson
Ken Green
Pat Grey

Murray Haby
Virgil Hubregtse
Michael McBain
Helen McNally
David Meagher
Geoffrey Paterson
Gary Presland
Rob Wallis

Sincere thanks to our book reviewers for 2008 who provided interesting and insightful comments on a wide range of books and other materials:

Neville Bonney
Helen Cohn
Leon Costermans
Matt Cupper
Robert Duck
Ian Endersby
Cecily Falkingham
Brian Finlayson
Paul George

Maria Gibson
John Harris
Fiona Hogan
Virgil Hubregtse
Matthew McArthur
Helen Mill
Melody Serena
Alan Yen

And our thanks go to the following people involved on the production side:

Ken Bell, who prepares the annual index;
Virgil Hubregtse for editorial assistance;
Helen McNally for printing the mailing labels;
Dorothy Mahler for administrative assistance; and Printers, BPA Print Group, especially Tom Markovski.
